

BOILER BLOW- OUT CAUSES SERIOUS RESULTS

Steamer Hopkins Meets With Accident That Injures
Seven Men

SOME SCALDED SO BADLY
THEY ARE LIKELY TO DIE

Disaster Occurred in San Diego
Bay on the Coronado
Side

SAN DIEGO, Feb. 14.—Seven men were terribly, burned four probably fatally, today when the tube of the boiler of the torpedo boat Hopkins blew out. The Hopkins was steaming outward with the rest of the fleet for practice at the time of the accident. The injured were brought ashore and taken to Agnew Sanitarium.

The men seriously scalded are: J. F. Hunt, chief water tender; G. N. McNeil, W. A. Neave, R. E. Taylor, first-class fireman; L. B. Carlette, second class fireman; A. E. Clary, water tender; T. J. Brown, coal passer.

The accident occurred at wharf No. 2, on the Coronado side of the bay. The steam registered 200 pounds, which is 50 under capacity. All the men were burned severely on their heads and shoulders. Taylor was the most seriously injured.

TAMALPAIS CASE HARKS BACK TO 1902

Man Who Took Watch to Eureka in That Year for Repair is Being Sought

EUREKA, Calif., Feb. 14.—Chief of Police Cloney today is in the heart of Trinity county visiting the logging camps in an endeavor to find James McKay, who in 1902 brought a watch here for repairing which was the same watch discovered on the skeleton of the woman found on Mt. Tamalpais. McKay, it is hoped, might throw some light on the woman's identity. It is not positive that he knew the woman but he may add a link to the chain of search.

Sold Two Buicks

The Orange City Garage has recently sold two Model 10 Buicks, one to James Alexander of Santa Ana, and the other to M. Dunsbaugh of Orange.

PRESENTMENT OF DEATH
INSTANTLY FULFILLED

OAKLAND, Feb. 14.—The veteran of the stage, with a career extending over a quarter of a century, John R. Furlong, aged 54 years, is dead. He was a member of "The Virginian" company, and after going to his hotel last night, felt a recurrent heart trouble. With a presentment that he would die, he hurried to the hotel lobby and said to his friends: "I'm dying, boys. I can't breathe well now. I wanted to be with you at the end." The next moment he succumbed to death.

BURGLAR CARRIED AWAY FIREARMS

Man Entered McFadden's Hardware Store—Got Rifle, Knife and Four Revolvers

A burglar who entered John McFadden's Hardware Store last Friday night stole a rifle, a knife and four revolvers. That the place had been burglarized was not discovered until late Saturday afternoon when a pane of glass in the rear of the store was seen to have been taken away.

The burglar entered the alley back of the store. This alley is unlighted, it being private property. A short time ago the fact that it was a dark place and an invitation to one looking for a chance to do robbery, was commented upon at the meeting of the Board of City Trustees, of which John McFadden is president.

A pane of glass twenty-four inches square was removed and was let slide behind some boxes inside the window. The burglar then climbed into the store and went to the firearms department at the front of the store. That the man was not a professional burglar seeking to carry away as much profitable plunder as possible is shown by the fact that no great quantity was taken away, and the cutlery was practically untouched, one sheath knife only being picked out by the thief. A professional probably would have taken away a good deal of cutlery, which runs into money fast.

The man evidently has an eye toward self defense, and he now may be well described as armed to the teeth. He got a 32-caliber Winchester rifle, a 32-caliber Colt's Special Police revolver, a 32-Savage revolver, and two Iver Johnson revolvers.

BURGLAR IS INSANE MAN

James Toland Goes to Patton Asylum for the Second Time as Crazy

James Toland, burglar, goes to the insane asylum at Patton for the second time. This was the order of Judge West today. Toland was in the Superior court on a charge of stealing a watch and clothes from Bert Ryssman of Anaheim, when his actions in court caused an investigation as to his sanity. District Attorney Davis received a letter and record from the asylum at Patton, showing that Toland was sent there from San Diego in September, 1908, and was discharged in March, 1909. He was charged with battery at San Diego, when it was found that he was insane. He believed blood hounds were after him.

A trusty at the county jail was a witness at the examination this morning that resulted in committing Toland to the asylum. To this man Toland had advanced wild theories of government. He had declared he would blow his brains out when he got out of jail. Toland told the physicians that he had ideas of his own about government. He said he did not know whether or not he was a Socialist, because he did not know what a Socialist is.

Toland was identified as the man who was in the asylum from San Diego by tattoo marks on his arms.

Hadsall, plaintiff in the action for judgment for half the profits of the Case, Hinze Co. in building and selling the sugar factory to the Southern California Sugar Co., is to be questioned. At 2 o'clock Frank Monaghan, plaintiff in the action that seeks to rescind the acceptance of the factory by the board of directors and to compel the Case, Hinze Co., the contractor, to bring it to a capacity of 600 tons, which capacity the plaintiff alleges it does not now have, will be questioned.

NO AMERICANS LOST ON FOUNDER- ED GEN. CHANZY

PARIS, Feb. 14.—The American consul at Marseilles has wired the United Press that no Americans were aboard the foundered General Chanzy. He had been requested to investigate a report to the effect that two San Francisco vaudeville actors, George Green and A. Dronde were among the 155 victims.

MAKING A FIGHT TO BREAK INFORMATION

The attorneys for M. Takekawa, the Los Angeles banker charged with perjury, are making a hard fight to have the information against him dismissed. The matter is being argued today before Judge West. The Japanese's attorneys contend that the evidence taken in the preliminary hearing does not tie the perjury tight enough to hold the man for trial in the superior court, and further they contend that the alleged false testimony was not on a material point in the civil case in which the testimony was given.

Sent to Asylum

Mrs. Celia Hermence was ordered committed to the asylum at Patton this morning. She has been possessed of hallucinations to the effect that someone had been trying to chloroform her. Recently, while staying over night at the Y.W.C.A. in Los Angeles, she attempted to jump from a window.

BUG ET WILL BE PASSED WITHOUT DOUBT

Conservatives Promise to Aid in Putting Lloyd George's Measure Through

STILL OPPOSED BUT WILL ESCAPE RESPONSIBILITY

Uncertainty as to Fate of Bill
Has Affected England
Financially

LONDON, Feb. 14.—Lord Balfour today assured Premier Asquith that the Conservatives will help the Liberals to pass the budget prepared by Chancellor Lloyd-George. This effectively allays the fears that parliament will have any deadlock.

Lord Balfour declared that the Conservatives were still opposed to the budget, but are not willing to assume the responsibility of further tying up the nation's finances. Business throughout the country has been noticeably affected on account of the uncertainty of the fate of the budget.

JUDGE WOULD ADMIT HYDE TO GRAND JURY

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 14.—Lawyers are discussing the announcement of Judge Ralph Latsch, who will preside at Dr. Hyde's trial, who said that Hyde should be allowed to be present to hear any testimony that may be presented before the grand jury which is investigating the death of Millionaire Swope. Usually the evidence is withheld as a secret from the defendant.

Depositions filed with the grand jury today and said to refer to the presence of strychnine in Christian Swope's stomach, were those of Thos. H. Gentry, druggist, and Pearl Kellar, nurse. The Judge did not intimate that Dr. Hyde would be admitted, however.

SHIPWRECKED PEOPLE ARRIVE AT SEATTLE

SEATTLE, Feb. 14.—Nineteen survivors of the wrecked steamer Faralen have been brought to this port by the steamer Victoria from Iliamna Bay, Alaska, where the vessel was wrecked. All the members of the crew and passengers decided to remain at Valdez and take the next west bound steamers toward their destinations.

BICYCLE SMASHED BY AN AUTOMOBILE

Question of Right of Way Raised—Second Wheel Struck the Machine

A bicycle was smashed at the corner of Fourth and Main streets shortly after 1 o'clock today. The automobile, driven by William McColloch, had made the proper turn from East Fourth to go south on Main street, and had crossed the south tracks when it struck a bicyclist going east on Fourth street. The automobile was stopped inside of two or three feet, but had smashed the bicycle. The bicyclist was thrown but was not injured. The question arises as to right of way. The rule is that a man who crosses the intersection first has the right of way, and in this case the automobilist contends he was right, having crossed the intersection first. A second bicyclist struck the side of the machine.

TAFT'S LINCOLN DAY ADDRESS IS PRAISED

Classed as Most Powerful Speech of President—Wall Street Stocks Take Tumble

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—The local press is commenting on President Taft's speech, made at the Lincoln Day dinner of the Republican Club of New York, at the Waldorf-Astoria on Saturday night. The Press (Independent, as are the others), says:

"It is clear that the President feels that the country would not permit him to stand still in the matter of the Sherman anti-trust law enforcement."

The Post says: "Perhaps Wall street and its converging channels will now come to see that sound principles and honest methods are the immovably fixed policy of the administration."

The Herald says: "The President's disclaimer that he would not willfully disturb business conditions was unnecessary."

The President's Position

President Taft, in his speech, declared that the Republican party had redeemed its pledge to revise the tariff, there being a revision downward, except on woolen goods and luxuries, such as liquors and silks, on which rates had to be maintained or made higher to produce revenue, as the law was passed not only to reduce rates on the country's industries, but to increase trade and revenue. He declared that the six months' operation of the Payne law shows a reduction below the previous tariff of 12 per cent. As a revenue producer the Payne tariff has pro-

DEATH COMES UNANNOUNCED

F. M. Ellsworth Dies Suddenly—Heart Failure Was Cause of Passing Away

F. M. Ellsworth died suddenly about 2 o'clock on Saturday afternoon at his home, 1911 Greenleaf street, of heart failure. Mr. Ellsworth had complained of not feeling well in the morning, but had eaten his dinner and was sitting in a chair when he suddenly expired, falling over quietly and dying without a struggle. He had been subject to heart attacks in the past.

The funeral was held this afternoon, Rev. H. E. Murkett conducting the services at the residence, at 2:30 o'clock. The service at the cemetery was conducted by the Masons, Mr. Ellsworth being a member of the Masonic order.

STEAMER RAMS PLEASURE YACHT-- MAN DROWNED

TACOMA, Feb. 14.—The steamer Celtic last night rammed a pleasure launch containing Claude Harris, Clayton Harris, Misses Loreta Brown, Ollie Kellar, Gertrude Walker, and Arthur N. Furr, aged 23, a bridge contractor. Furr is missing and is supposed to have drowned, but the others were rescued by the Celtic.

JAPANESE WILL PRESENT SOUVENIR OF THANKS

TOKIO, Feb. 14.—That the Japanese business men who composed the honorary trade commission which recently visited 300 cities in this country, will present the Chamber of Commerce of each city visited with a Nishikin silk tablet woven with an inscription of thanks, was the announcement made today. The presentation will occur early in the summer.

Goes Back to Work

Otto Jacobs of this city who was badly injured by an electric shock while at work on a high power line at asadena, will go to work tomorrow for the first time since the accident four months ago. Jacobs received a jolt from a wire carrying 30,000 volts. The current entered at his right forearm and the boot on the left leg made the connection with the pole, grounding the current. He fell fifty feet. Jacobs was in a hospital for three months.

Ninety-Day Sentence

Gustaf Betke of Cypress, is in the county jail to serve a ninety-day sentence given him by Justice Smithwick. The man was charged with beating his wife.

GIRL WAS NOT 18 YEARS OLD

Anaheim Youth Alleged to Have Sworn Falsely to Secure His Marriage License

Los Angeles Times: The young dream of love of Jake Snodgrass of Anaheim and Ruby Ruth, daughter of Edward Ruth of Sherman, may end in bitterness and tears, if the representations made to the district attorney yesterday are true.

Friends of the family asked the official to look into the case, as they declare the girl is only sixteen years old, and that her sweetheart swore she is two years older in order to get a marriage license, which was issued Wednesday.

For more than a year Snodgrass has sought to claim the girl as his bride, but met with stern parental oppositions. He was denied admittance to the home of Miss Ruth, but this did not check his ardor. He addressed letters to her, which she received through the general delivery in Los Angeles.

Love letters passed between them daily for several weeks before her parents found out about this method of communication. They then restrained her from getting mail in this manner.

The girl came to the city to visit her sister, Mrs. Clinton Black, No. 935 East Fifty-seventh street, early last week. She left Thursday morning, saying she was going back to Sherman. She has not been seen by relatives since. From the fact that a marriage license was issued, it is believed that the couple has eloped.

A deputy district attorney will probably make an investigation of the case tomorrow. If he finds that the facts are as they have been stated, it is likely that he will issue a warrant charging perjury.

SUGAR FACTORY MEN VISIT HERE

A party of five capitalists, including Senator Douglas and Thomas Dolf, are here today from Nevada in the interests of building a sugar factory at Fallon, Nev. The party was taken through the sugar factory here by H. W. and Fred Hinze.

SANTA ROSA, Feb. 14.—District Attorney Lea and Sheriff Smith are busily engaged in a secret investigation concerning the evidence they are collecting to present in an effort to substantiate the charge of attempting to kill Mrs. Luella Smith and her baby by dynamite laid against Dr. Willard Burke, the head of the Burke sanitarium.

The impression is general that there will be a greater sensation sprung than Burke's arrest and release on bail of $20,000. Lea said that probably a week would pass before Burke would be arraigned. Dr. Burke, on the advice of his attorneys, refuses to talk. He conferred with them today and appeared calm.

CANDIDATES ARE COMING OUT FROM COVER

Alden Anderson Would Take Gubernatorial Honors of State

HE WILL COMPETE WITH
CURRY FOR NOMINATION

"Bulletin" Urges Name of Hiram Johnson of San Francisco for Governor

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 14.—Information here today from a source considered as reliable, state as practically certain that Alden Anderson, lieutenant governor under Governor Pardee, and now the State Superintendent of Banks, will be a candidate for governor at the forthcoming primaries against Charles F. Curry, for the Republican nomination. Likely these will be the only candidates. Colonel Weinstein has been mentioned as a Lincoln-Roosevelt candidate, but his partner here, Bonheim, stated that Weinstein positively declines the nomination as he did not have political ambitions.

Bulletin Urges Johnson

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 14.—The Bulletin this afternoon in display type on the front page came out urging on the people the desirability of Hiram Johnson of this city for governor. The Bulletin said:

"Now that Francis J. Heney has determined not to become a candidate of the Lincoln-Roosevelt League for the Republican nomination for governor, the logic of the situation calls for the naming of Hiram W. Johnson."

Johnson is a member of the League, which meets either tomorrow or Saturday.

TITLE CLAIMANT IS DOWN AND OUT

English Court Denies Legality of Claim of Ernest Henry Suckville West

LONDON, Feb. 14.—After a checkered career in the courts, the petition of Ernest Henry Suckville West for the title and estates of Lord Sackville West was denied today by Justice Biggam. The petitioner sought by witnesses and record to prove himself the son of Lord Sackville West by a Spanish dancing girl, whom he is alleged to have married in Paris. In weighing the evidence, the court ruled that even if Sackville had married the girl, a marriage was illegal as the woman was alleged to have had a husband living. The decision will probably end the proceedings on the part of the claimant.

GIVES UP $10,000 PRACTICE TO CARRY THE GOSPEL

TACOMA, Wash., Feb. 14.—Believing he was called to carry the gospel into Central Africa, Dr. George T. Ford, a prominent dentist, is closing out his business, which is netting him $10,000 yearly, preparatory to moving with his family to Guatemala City, where he will continue to practice dentistry free, believing this will help him to find willing ears for his teachings.

Oceanside Automobilists Not Pleased With Too Free Use of Name of Del Mar

The Oceanside Blade, in speaking of the visit there last week of L. F. Block of the Automobile Club of Southern California, commented upon a matter that has aroused some adverse criticism here. The Oceanside paper says:

"It has been called to the attention of Mr. Block that the signs at present work an injustice to many of the places along the route from Los Angeles to San Diego. In place of saying so many miles to whatever the next town may be, all the signs state that it is so many miles to Del Mar. Now, Mr. Keller, president of the Automobile Club, is interested in Del Mar, and if the club, under ordinary circumstances, choose to advertise Del Mar, at the expense of the members, no one could object except the members. But the counties are being asked to defray a portion of the cost of placing the signs and the taxpayers of the county residing in the various towns are entitled to what advertising and common sense convenience may arise from the signs stating that it is so many miles to the next town, whatever that may be. If the next town is Del Mar, say so, but if it is Oceanside, say that."

Be very careful about her churn. She scalds it thoroughly after using, and gives a sun bath to sweeten it. She knows that if her churn is sour it will taint the butter that is made in it. The stomach is a churn. In the stomach and digestive and nutritive tracts are performed processes which are almost exactly like the churning of butter. Is it not apparent then that if this stomach-churn is foul it makes foul all which is put into it?

The evil of a foul stomach is not alone the bad taste in the mouth and the foul breath caused by it, but the corruption of the pure current of blood and the dissemination of disease throughout the body. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes the sour and foul stomach sweet. It does for the stomach what the washing and sun bath do for the churn—absolutely removes every taint or corrupting element. In this way it cures blotches, pimples, eruptions, scrofulous swellings, sores, or open eating ulcers and all tumors or diseases arising from bad blood. If you have bitter, nasty foul taste in your mouth, coated tongue, foul breath, are weak and easily tired, feel depressed and despondent, have frequent headaches, dizzy attacks, gnawing or distress in stomach, constipated or irregular bowels, sour or bitter risings after eating and poor appetite, these symptoms, or any considerable number of them, indicate that you are suffering from biliousness, torpid or lazy liver with the usual accompanying indigestion, or dyspepsia and their attendant derangements.

The best agents known to medical science for the cure of the above symptoms and conditions, as attested by the writings of leading teachers and practitioners of all the several schools of medical practice, have been skillfully and harmoniously combined in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. That this is absolutely true will be readily proven to your satisfaction if you will but mail a postal card request to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for a free copy of his booklet of extracts from the standard medical authorities, giving the names of all the ingredients entering into his world-famed medicines and showing what the most eminent medical men of the age say of them.

ALL STARS GO DOWN THRICE

Local Team Defeated the Visitors Saturday and Again Yesterday

(By F. H. Mitchell.)
The Yellow Sox are no more! Why? Because their name has been changed to the Santa Ana Invincibles, having lost but one game out of the last eight games played.

That Santa Ana has one of the fastest teams in the South there is no doubt, as it demonstrated this fact when it beat the All Stars three successive games.

Saturday's game was played at the Association Park, the Invincibles winning by the score of 2 to 1.

"Hungry Dutch" Renrichs was on the mound for the locals, and pitched one of the greatest games of his career, letting the All Stars down with four hits. He struck out nine of them, besides securing a two-bagger that started the rally which won the game in the eighth inning.

The All Stars scored their first run in the fourth. Orendorf opened with a triple and scored on Adams' out at first, and that was their lone score.

The Yellow Sox didn't score until the eighth, when Renrichs opened with a double, and scored on C. Head's hit to left. Head was sacrificed to third by Mott, and scored on Gandil's squeeze play. Gandil was out at first, and that was all.

Saturday's score:

Sunday's Game

The All Stars came back for another dose of medicine Sunday, and they got what they came for in the shape of a 3 to 1 defeat.

Johnson was on the mound for the locals and held the visitors to one hit and one run. The locals scored the first run in the third. The All Stars tied it up in the fourth, and Johnson ended their hopes in the eighth with a home run that scored Angle ahead of him, winning the game, as there was no more scoring.

Plenty of Ivory

(From the Kansas City Star)
"Ivory is cheaper today than it ever was. More ivory is being imported than ever. It isn't true that we are in danger of exhausting our supply."

The speaker, an ivory dealer, patting a tusk as big as a girl of 14.

"This tusk," he said, "is from an ivory palisade about an African King's palace. In the interior of Africa there are innumerable Kings and Chiefs whose palisades are of ivory. For consider, since the world began there have been tusks, and these tusks for centuries have been preserved by native potentates. It will be long enough before we exhaust that supply."

"The price of ivory? Well, I'll give you $4 a pound for the best tusk, suitable for billiard balls. That is 40 per cent lower than the price was ten years ago—and want better proof is there than that of the abundance of the supply?"

A SIMPLE QUESTION

Santa Ana People Are Requested to Honestly Answer This —Is not the word of a representative citizen of Santa Ana more convincing than the doubtful utterances of people living everywhere else in the Union? Read this:

E. O. McKinney, 824 East Third street, Santa Ana, Cal., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills were especially suited to my case and in view of my experience I am glad to recommend them. For a year and a half I suffered from pain in my sides and over my right kidney. It was a throbbing or beating pain and it seemed as if a knife were being thrust into me. I thought that the trouble was caused by heavy lifting but I was unable to get relief from the remedies I took. Acting on the suggestion of a party who had used Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a box at Dean's Drug Store. Finding relief from their use, I continued taking them and it was not long before the pain had ceased. The passages of the kidney secretions were also regulated and my kidneys were restored to a normal condition. I have had no symptoms of kidney complaint since and therefore feel justified in giving Doan's Kidney Pills my endorsement."

ON THE ANXIOUS SEAT

We have the fact staring us in the face that the Federal grand jury at Chicago has at least seven of the principal conspirators in the great meat-packer's combine on the anxious seat.

We also have something more interesting nearer home. The retail butchers of Los Angeles are up in arms because they find under existing conditions it is impossible for them to buy cattle and butcher their own meat because of the inspection ordinance which the wholesalers have fastened upon the city. Under its provisions they are compelled to buy of the wholesalers or go out of business, and they are wanting it changed. As it is, the packers are the only ones who can operate under it, and hence they have an absolute monopoly of the meat business. There are more than 200 retailers engaged in this movement for deliverance from the packers who they allege have formed a combine to boost and keep up prices. And they ought to know something about it.

Thus the real facts as to the high prices of the necessities of life are coming one by one to light.

Legislative control of women's head-gear is the task set for themselves by the Maryland solons. The brims of hats are to be limited to ten inches on each side, which allowing for from 12 to 14 inches of a crown still leaves a structure of about three feet, with which it is thought the ladies should be satisfied. Some men are mighty unreasonable.

The Political Watchtower

Word comes up from Newport precinct that C. P. Pann of the lowlands is going to be a candidate for the Republican nomination for county treasurer. This makes the second man seeking the Republican nomination. C. L. Conway of Orange started his petition ten or fifteen days ago and has been right busy with it. Pann was a candidate before the county convention that nominated officers for the 1905 election. He sought the Republican nomination for auditor. In the meantime County Treasurer Joplin seems to have a clear field for the Democratic nomination.

There is talk on the street today to the effect that Attorney L. A. West of Santa Ana is likely to ask the Republicans for the nomination for district attorney. District Attorney Davis, who is seeking the office again, has a number of registration deputies in the field.

Foreign Geography.
Children of European birth who were old enough to receive some instruction in geography before coming to this country hold opinions in regard to the political divisions of the earth which all the American geographers and the teachers thereof combined cannot uproot. A New York teacher found that out when she tried to impress upon a young Austrian miss that Columbus is the capital of Ohio.

"It is Cincinnati, on the Ohio," reported the Austrian maiden politely, but firmly.
Maps and printed text were produced to prove her error. The pupil was in nowise convinced.

"It wasn't that way in our geography at home," said she. And the next day, to uphold her contention, she brought the geography on which she based her assertion. That book was not a perfect product of the geography maker's art, for it certainly did state that Cincinnati, on the Ohio river, was the capital of Ohio.

"But that is a mistake," said the teacher. Then day after day, when the girl was called upon to recite, the teacher put the question of discord. "What is the capital of Ohio?" and day after day, at the risk of bad marks, came the positive reply, "Cincinnati, on the Ohio."—New York Press.

Whelke's Eggs.

Natural soap is not heard of very often, but it not only exists, but is highly prized by Jack Tar in the tropics when the purser reports that the ship's supply of soap has given out. Then all hands are sent ashore to gather a supply of "natural soap," which is found on the shore in the shape of whelk's eggs. The whelk is a little shellfish, or marine mollusk, which in Europe is eaten like mussels, cockles, oysters and clams, but in the tropics it is more highly esteemed for the soap it provides in the shape of its eggs. The eggs are found in a light yellowish mass which is composed of some five or six hundred capsules. One fish alone produces millions of these eggs in the course of the year. They are found on the shores of the Atlantic, but are very profuse on the intertropical coral reefs, where sailors take large quantities aboard for use as soap.

Diamond Cut Diamond.

"Patrick H. McCarrren," said a Brooklyn lawyer, "knew how to handle men. He met straightforward men with straightforward methods, and tricky men he bested with willer tricks than their own."

"Once he illustrated his policy to me with a story. He was like, he said, the rich Peter Higgins."

"When Peter was young and gay two friends, being hard up, put up a game on him."

"Peter," they said, "you might pay us that $2 we lent you."

"When did you lend me $2?" said Peter haughtily.

"Why, night before last, when you were drunk," was the reply.

"Oh, yes," said Peter. "I remember now. But, hang it, I paid you back!"

"Paid us back? When?"

"Last night, when you were drunk. Don't you remember?"

Didn't Lose His Temper.

There was an elderly East Indian colonel whose boast it was that he had a very tranquil disposition that nothing could ruffle. He took up golf, and for a long time his friends failed to notice any disturbance of the colonel's outward calm, but one day, when playing a foursome, he got into a notorious "devil's punchbowl" bunker and spent a terrible fifteen minutes trying first to find the ball and then to play it out. He tried every club in vain, and at last, glaring like a demon, he smashed them, one after another, across a jagged rock. "What are you doing?" cried the party above. "It's all right!" he snorted. "It's—it's better to—break one's clubs than to—lose one's temper!" And the caddy gathered up the pieces.

Crushing a Lawyer.

De Wolfe Hopper was once a witness in a suit for slander, and the opposing counsel in the court room said:

"You are an actor, I believe?"

"Yes," replied Hopper.

"Is not that a low calling?"

"I don't know, but it's so much better than my father's that I am rather proud of it."

"What was your father's calling, may I ask?"

"He was a lawyer," said Hopper.

Playing It Down Low.

"I haven't much use for Biltherley," said the proud papa.

"Why?" asked the proud mamma.

"I listened to him for an hour today while he told me about what his baby had said or tried to say, and just as I was about to tell him about ours he left me, saying he had to catch a train."—Baltimore American.

By Main Strength.

They were listening to a piano solo at a club after dinner party.

"I know a girl," she whispered, "who played the piano, and she had only four fingers on one hand."

"You'd think from the way this one is playing," said he, "that she hadn't any."—New York Press.

Insulted.

"Have you lived in this town very long, Miss Sear?"

"Of course not! Do I look old enough to have lived anywhere very long?"

His Obligations.

"I owe Pjenks a call."

"Going there this evening?"

"No. You see—er—that isn't all I owe him."—Cleveland Leader.

Taft's Lincoln Day ADDRESS IS PRAISED

duced 26 per cent greater revenue, on a monthly average, than the Dingley tariff.

Postal Savings Bank

President Taft claimed that the platform pledges had been further redeemed by the introduction of a postal savings bank bill, which he hoped would be passed in good shape.

As to Railroads

The President said he approved the enactment of a railroad rate law and the enforcement of the statute against rebates, and therefore strongly urged the interstate commerce bill, enlarging its power for investigation.

Anti-Trust Legislation

He said there was no promise by the Republicans to change the anti-trust law, but to strengthen it, and declared that the administration could be depended on "to enforce the law in the way best calculated to prevent a destruction of public confidence in business, but that it must enforce the law goes without saying."

On other matters, such as statehood for Arizona and the inharmonious in the party, President Taft said the statehood pledge was on the way to redemption, and urged hearty effort for a getting together by the factions of the party. He did not minimize the danger of success by the insurgents. He approved conservation of resources.

WALL STREET RESTIVE UNDER TAFT'S SPEECH

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—There was heavy selling on the opening of the stock exchange this morning on account of disappointment in high financial circles over President Taft's speech last Saturday night. All stocks on the general list fell off, many dropping from one to three points. Later a sharp upward trend showed the strength of the market.

CONGRESSMEN PLEASED WITH TAFT'S BIG SPEECH

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—Republican congressmen are discussing President Taft's Lincoln Day speech in New York today and are prepared to fire the first shot for the congressional campaign of this fall. Encouraged by the general opinion that the speech was the most powerful yet delivered by President Taft, the "Regulars" have decided to take advantage of Taft's aggressiveness by having the speech franked through the mails. Representative Hayes of California said he liked the speech as it lacked dodging. He is one of the insurgent leaders. It is taken for granted that W. J. Bryan and Norman E. Mack will reply to President Taft's speech through the magazines for the Democrats, while the Democratic members in congress will present their viewpoint of the matters that Taft discussed.

Taft Admitted Unpopularity
KANSAS CITY, Feb. 14.—The "Star," the first paper in the Middle West to urge the nomination of Taft for the presidency, said today that Taft in his speech admitted a loss of popularity for the administration, and that this might cause the loss of the house of representatives for the Republicans.

Just a Fit.
In the Ex-Libris Journal an amusing anecdote is given of a man anxious for a coat of arms and fortunate in finding one. A secondhand bookseller bought at a country sale some 300 volumes of handsome but unsalable old sermons, books on theology and the like.

He placed a number of these outside his shop. Soon afterward a well dressed man entered and said, "Have you any more of this kind of books with this shield on them?" pointing to the bookplate attached, which bore the arms and name of a good old country family.

"That box, sir, is full of books from the same house," answered the bookseller.

"What do you ask for them?" inquired the man. "I'm going back to Chicago, and I want to take some books, and these will just fit me, name and all. Just you sort out all that have that shield and name, but don't you send any without that nameplate, for that's my name too. I reckon this old fellow with the daggers and roosters might have been related to me some way."

Picking a Horse.

A British cavalry officer, speaking of horses, said:

"Give me a free hand and I should pick a roan—that is, for good temper and quick learning. Dark grays and blacks are mostly strong and hardy, and so are dark chestnuts. As a general rule, light chestnuts and light bays are nervous and delicate. A rusty black's a sulky pig nine times out of ten. Then, again, there are 'white stockings,' as they call them. You know the old saying, 'One white leg's a bad un, two white legs you may sell to a friend, three white legs you may trust for a time, four white legs you may lay your life on.'"

This does not agree with an old Yankee saying:

One white foot, buy him;
Two white feet, try him;
Three white feet, look well about him;
Four white feet, go on without him.

Now, however, the American idea is similar to that of the sergeant, and they say, "Four white feet you can stake your life on him."—London Spectator.

An Ingenious Device.

When Sir Robert Perks' school days were over he entered the office of a firm of lawyers and worked very hard. It was no uncommon thing to find him reading law at 5 in the morning, and this often after he had been working late on the previous night. As a matter of fact, he made it an inflexible rule never to be in bed of a morning after 5. To enforce this rule he invented an ingenious device. This consisted of a long glass tube filled with water nicely balanced over his head and attached by a string to an alarm. At the desired hour the bell rang and awakened the sleeper. If within a few seconds he did not leap from his bed and avert the calamity the descending weight of the clock destroyed the balance of the tube, and down poured the water on his guilty head!—From "The Life Story of Sir Robert W. Perks, Bart, M. P.," by Dennis Crane.

The Limit.

There is a blacksmith who has a shop downtown and who has a reputation for good work, especially in the making of ice tongs. But he claims to be an expert on any kind of ironwork.

Recently a man dropped in on him while he was working on a pair of ice books.

"I see you are an expert on ice books," said the caller.

"Oh, yes! I make ice books putty good," remarked the mechanic, "unt I also shoe your horses or do other iron-work yust so good."

"Well," said the caller, "I've got a stove on which the hinges need repairing. Can you fix them?"

The blacksmith drew himself up to his full height and scornfully asked, "Do you think I am a doc gasted jeweler?"—St. Joseph Gazette.

The Comparison.

Dropping into the Garrick club one afternoon, Charles Brookfield, the dramatist, found a well known actor, who happened to be playing David Garrick at the time, reclining in a chair right under the portrait of the immortal "Davy." Brookfield stopped in front of him and looked first at the portrait and then at the man. "By Jove, old fellow," he exclaimed at last, "you grow more and more like Garrick every day!"

"Do you really think so, Brookfield?" returned the delighted victim.

"Yes," came the crushing retort, "and less and less like him every night."—London Tatler.

Unique American Families.

The Harrison family, like the Adams family of Massachusetts, on its illustrious genealogical tree carries the names of one signer of the Declaration of Independence and two presidents of the United States, and in this record the Adamses and the Harrisons stand apart in a class by themselves. These distinctions in one family, it can be noted, will never again be equaled. It remains unique in the history of the country.

An Eye to Safety.

Living Skeleton (president of Freaks' Secret society)—Our organization, ladies and gentlemen, is about perfected. It will be necessary, however, to elect a treasurer. Who shall it be? Chorus of Members—The legless wonder!

Accommodating.

Jinks—Have you got quarters for a dollar, old man? Winks—My vest pocket is rather crowded, but pass it over and I'll try to make room for it.

Jealousy is a secret avowal of one's inferiority.—Massillon.

has been studying the question that has been worrying the astronomers and has brought terror to many people because of the appearance of Halley's comet and the fear that its tail will brush the earth with direful effect.

We take issue with those scientific men who think the tail of that comet is composed of deadly gases and have found out that is aint composed of anything, so can't do any harm to anybody, so we say "come and let us reason together" and then banish your fears.

About seventy years ago there was a large body of gaseous vapor discovered approaching the sun and it was named "Halley's Comet," taking the name of the man who first saw it. The rays of the sun passed through the ragged edges of that vapor and produced the same effect that is observed when the light of the sun shines through a crack in the wall and encounters dust in the air, the ray of light becomes visible because of the dust.

Now notice that when the comet was going toward the sun that tail was behind; when it was opposite the sun the said tail was on the side and when that comet turned around, started to go away on its long journey, that tail went before it, as a well-behaved tail could, would or should do, all of which proves that there is something in all the distant space (ether or air) that catches the rays of the sun as they pass through that thing we call a comet. Of course we know all about it for we have just celebrated the completion of our first seventy-three years on this earth and it is only seventy years ago that this same comet came this way.

Therefore we will keep right along making irrigation pipe and cans and you will need them "alle samee." So long,

The Bohemians Dined

Saturday evening at 7:30, at the Rossmore Hotel, occurred the regular monthly business meeting and banquet of the Bohemian Club of Santa Ana.

At a table beautifully decorated and laden with the results of an extra effort of the skilled chef of that popular hostelry, the entire membership of the club was seated. One new member—W. H. Titchener—was added to the roll Saturday night, he being the first accepted since the organization of the club. The gathering partook somewhat of the character of a Valentine party, as the menus were printed on red heart-shaped cards. Delightful music was furnished during the dinner hour, after which the business of the club was transacted.

Many matters of importance were discussed, and action taken on them by the club. The question of the bond of the treasurer was discussed and finally determined. On motion, the president was instructed to appoint a social committee, and W. H. Titchener and Tarver Montgomery were named.

The building committee reported that an option had been secured on a tract in the Red Hill district, and submitted a plan for building a "country club" house, instead of a home in the city, as had been previously planned. This plan was regarded with favor, as it has thus far been difficult to find a location within the city which would meet all the requirements of the club. Final action on the matter, however, was deferred until the next meeting.

The question of an assessment upon the stock to create a fund for the purpose of furnishing the proposed club house was discussed, but on motion was laid on the table. Plans for a minstrel performance to be given under the auspices of the Bohemian Club were discussed, and action will probably be taken on this question in the near future.

Having finished the business of the evening, and the inner man having been thoroughly administered to, the club adjourned to meet again at the call of the president.

SPECIAL MEETINGS TO BE CONTINUED THIS WEEK

The evangelistic meetings held at the First M. E. church for the past two weeks will be continued this week up to and including Thursday night, Rev. Murkett in charge, assisted by Herbert Farrar, the singer who has won the hearts of his hearers by his sweet voice and the effective rendering of gospel songs.

The morning service at this church was an evangelistic one, and solos were sung by Messrs. Farrar and Neeley. A duet was sung by Mrs. J. W. Garrett and C. W. Coffman. During the Sunday school hour, the time for the lesson was given up to an evangelistic service conducted by Rev. Murkett. Many of the young people responded to the appeal to enter Christian service.

At the union service in the evening a quartette composed of Messrs. Farrar, Coffman, Baker and Mr. Young of Long Beach, sang very beautifully.

Business College Notes

Those to enroll in Orange County Business College this week were Mr. Raymond Rogers, Santa Ana; Miss Clara Thorman, Tustin; Mr. F. C. Gowen, Santa Ana; Mr. Leon Griset, Tustin.

Quite a number have called to make arrangements to start next week, having completed the high school course at this commencement. Those to take positions this week were Miss H. Jeanette Rowell and Miss Kate Kelly, who began their duties in the county office Monday. There are two other positions at the disposal of the president, for which he has not yet found available candidates. All our graduates, and students competent to take positions, already have good places.

Roy Butterfield of the '09 class, who was sent to a good position with the Wells Fargo Co. at Las Vegas, N. M., has been transferred to a better position with the same company at their San Bernardino office. He visited the college Friday, while on his way to his new location.

Miss Carrie Reisland, a student here last year, but now studying music in Los Angeles, visited the college Friday and gave the school a treat to some classical music, splendidly rendered. She is soon due to go to Hemet, where she has a large class of students for piano.

NO DYSPEPSIA OR HEARTBURN

Indigestion Goes and Your Stomach Feels Fine in Five Minutes

—You can eat anything your stomach craves without fear of indigestion or dyspepsia, or that your food will ferment or sour on your stomach if you will take a little Diapepsin occasionally.

Your meals will taste good, and anything you eat will be digested; nothing can ferment or turn into acid or poison or stomach gas, which causes belching, dizziness, a feeling of fullness after eating, nausea, indigestion (like a lump of lead in stomach), biliousness, heartburn, water brash, pain in stomach and intestines or other symptoms.

Headaches from the stomach are absolutely unknown where this effective remedy is used. Diapepsin really does all the work of a healthy stomach. It digests your meals when your stomach can't. A single dose will digest all the food you eat and leave nothing to ferment or sour and upset the stomach.

Get a large 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from your druggist and start taking now, and in a little while you will actually brag about your healthy, strong stomach, for you then can eat anything and everything you want without the slightest discomfort or misery, and every particle of impurity and gas that is going to be carried away without the use of laxatives or any other assistance.

Should you at this moment be suffering from indigestion or any stomach disorder, you can get relief within five minutes.

AMUSEMENTS

The Grand

In the limited field of prima donna comedienettes, Miss Dorothy Morton occupies a distinguished position. There are many prima donnas on the stage today, and many comedienettes, but there are few who combine the qualifications of being prima donna as well as that of a comedienne. In fact the number of prima donna comedienettes may be counted on the fingers of one hand.

The fame of Dorothy Morton is as wide as the territory where the English language is spoken, to which may be added many foreign countries.

Her superb voice and her artistic laughter-raising ability have delighted countless thousands. New York greeted her as a star in the memorable production of the opera "Dorothy," and honors followed quickly when she appeared in the original production of "The Wizard of the Nile," "The Fencing Master," "The Geisha," and her memorable creation of the widow in "The Prince of Pilsen."

The talented star will be presented here, supported by a carefully selected company, equipped with a superb scenic production and a wealth of costuming, at the Grand Opera House Monday evening, Feb. 14.

Another Sensation

The Temple Theatre has another out-of-the-ordinary feature act, in fact a combination of acts, either one of which would be a headline on any bill. This much talked about number is presented by the Wilbur-Ami Co. In their laughable sketch, And, the human dummy has a very important part, allowing full sway for his strange and unique character to be seen to the best advantage, as Wilbur, the man with 100 voices, in his ventriloquy act, makes use of the Human Dummy in many amusing ways. With the above acts, manager Roberts will have the usual new show of the latest moving pictures and illustrated songs, and the big double bill will be presented tonight at the usual prices and two shows each night.

Jimmy's Recitation.

Jimmy is one of the most enthusiastic members of his Sunday school. He is usually very quiet, but when, soon after he joined, a storm prevented many members of his class from coming to take their parts in a long planned entertainment Jimmy could not endure in silence the distress of his teacher.

"Hi can speak a piece," he said bashfully.

"Oh, can you? What is it about?"

"'Bout the beasts that went with Noah."

"Well, said the distracted teacher, 'I haven't time to hear it now, but I think it ought to help fill up. Thank you, Jimmy.'"

When Jimmy's name was called the small man mounted the platform, put his hands in his pockets and proudly and loudly spouted the following:

The helk and the helepant hentered the hark

When the helepant hopened the ball.

The helk harked the helepant, "What's to heat?"

Said the helepant, "Ay is hall."

The helk and the helepant hate the ay.

Said the helk, with a heloquent sigh,

"Hi 'ope you are 'appy this 'orrible day."

And the helepant hanswered, "Haye."

Coyote and Jack Rabbit.

The speed of the jack rabbit has always been proverbial among western men, like the speed of a coyote. In a straightaway race it is claimed that the jack rabbit can distance the coyote, but he usually falls a victim to the coyote's superior intelligence. The favorite coyote method for catching jack rabbits is for one of the animals to start a jack and attend to the work of keeping the victim on the run, while the other coyote sits down, patiently awaiting the arrival of his dinner. The jack rabbit when he has a free range will run in circles, and the coyotes cleverly count on this habit. Before long the rabbit will arrive at the place from which he started, and there coyote No. 2, fresh and ready for a short sprint, will swoop down upon him and then divide the meal with the coyote that has done the actual chasing.—New York Press.

Hunting Truffles as Sport.

Quite apart from the interest of fungi to the naturalist the temptation cannot here be resisted to refer to a method of procuring one kind of fungus, which might take rank among the minor sports. This is the fashion, originating in France, of procuring the truffle by the aid of swine and hounds. More ill assorted sporting companions can hardly be imagined. The truffle grows underground. Pigs are particularly fond of these delicacies and, guided by the scent, will discover them by rooting in the earth. After the discovery of the truffles the dogs are employed to beat back the pigs and prevent them from devouring the spoil. And every quality dear to the sportsman of skill and judgment is needed to control and obtain the desired result from the efforts of a herd of swine and a pack of hounds.—London Outlook.

Habits of Seals.

The habits of seals are very interesting. The very young seal is helpless in the water until he is taught by his mother to swim. She takes him into the water daily on her fin and dumps him in and when he gets tired of floundering about places him on her fin again and returns to her camp. When the young seals are well grown they suddenly disappear with their mothers and the bull seals. No one knows where they go, and their return is equally as sudden as their departure. The bulls are the first to put in an appearance at the camping ground. When they arrive they commence at once to prepare a camp for their mates, which they stake off and for which they fight until they die. In the meantime the female seals remain quite a distance from land, floating lazily on the water and seemingly having a good time.

Ant Eaters.

Ant eaters are in the curious position of being practically unable to open their mouths. It may almost be said, indeed, that they have no mouths to open. There is just a small, round orifice at the end of the snout, through which about two feet of wormlike tongue can wriggle out, and as this tongue is bathed with liquid glue instead of saliva every ant which it touches adheres to it, and the animal licks the insects up by hundreds at a time.

Not Up to Modern Standards.

"Your wife's new hat makes her look like a queen," said the man who tries to be complimentary.

"Don't let her hear you say that," answered Mr. Bliggins. "I have looked through the histories, and I never yet saw a picture of a queen who looked as if she employed a first class milliner."—Washington Star.

Evarts and the Author.

When a popular young author went to see William M. Evarts while he was secretary of state in behalf of a consulship for which he was an applicant Mr. Evarts congratulated him on the fame which he had acquired, but hastened to add, "Although you have laurels on your brows, I suppose you can't browse on your laurels."

Inquisitive.

After Sunday school:

Willie—Did you hear that boy swear, Johnny, when I told him to go away? Johnny—No. (Quietly persuasive) Tell him to go away again and I'll listen.—Manchester Guardian.

Human nature is so constituted that all see and judge better in the affairs of other men than in their own.—Terence.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 14.—

A member of Congress may be the biggest sort of a frog in the small puddle whose citizens elect him, but when he hits the national capital, he is lost in the engulfing greatness of the national puddle.

Apocryphal of which a certain grizzled veteran in the House was moved to tell the following true story:

"Flushed with the sense of his own importance and full of the glory of representing a certain body of citizens of this great nation, a newly elected congressman stepped out of the big Union Station here last March, glanced at the dome of the capitol with pride, and, grasping his carpet bag, proceeded out into the open.

"He had come to see the inauguration and be ready to take the oath when the special session convened. Around him in the station was a tremendous crowd of strangers, here for March 4.

"The newly elected one took a street car and rode down Pennsylvania avenue. The conductor came through the car, yelled 'Fare' in the scared face of the representative, and offensively admonished him to hustle and produce. The congressman flushed at the insult, reached down in his trouser's pocket and dug up a $20 bill, which he proffered.

"'Nothin' doin'," remarked the conductor. "I can't change that; gimme a smaller one."

"I haven't any less," retorted the member.

"Then get off'n the car," said the conductor rudely.

"Why, I'll have you know I'm Congressman So-and-So," the outraged representative expostulated. "How dare you talk of putting me off this car?"

"Aw, get off," yelled the conductor, undismayed, and, suiting the action to the word, he pushed the honorable So-and-So off.

"This happened just in front of one of the big hotels downtown. The member picked his way into the lobby and interviewed the clerk.

"I desire a room and bath," he stated loftily.

"Sorry, there isn't one here," the functionary responded wearily, for the inauguration rush was on in full force.

"Well," began the member, "I'm Representative So-and-So, and—er—"

"We ain't got a room," interrupted the clerk. "Sorry," and he rushed over to the bellboys, ignoring further conversation.

"The crestfallen member slowly wended his way out to the street again. He espied a crossing policeman.

"Kindly tell me," he began, in that "I-am-I" manner, "where I can secure a room and bath."

"The cop had been on duty eight hours and had handled several thousand people while standing exposed to the cold winds, and was not enjoying it, either.

"I don't know where you can get a room," he said, ungraciously, the meanwhile helping an elderly lady across the car tracks.

"But I am Representative So-and-So. I will have you to know, officer!"

"Aw, shut up. I ain't got time to bother with the likes of you."

"The member slunk away. Around him crowds surged. Nobody paid him any attention. He was alone with his greatness. Those to whom he had spoken had not apparently been properly awed with his position. He was afraid. Slowly he meandered up to a friendly tree and leaned up against it. He was so wrapped up in thinking over how insignificant he was that he inadvertently stepped on the tail of a street cur that had sheltered itself at the base of the tree.

"The dog let out a yelp and promptly buried his teeth in the congressional skin. But the representative was past complaint. Forlornly feeling the wound, and regarding the dog, which had taken a place just out of reach of kicking range, he said, brokenly.

"You cur, how in hell did you know I was a member of Congress?"

Life at the White House is irksome, at least for two members of the Taft official household. These are the secret service men, who are charged with the protection of the President, and who Sherlock Holmes in his immediate vicinity about twenty-four hours a day.

For instance, the President has acquired the habit of pedestrianism, and consequently one James Sloan, and one Lucien C. Wheeler have also become walkers. President Taft has a habit of intending to start for a walk about 3 o'clock in the afternoon. That is, the presidential automobile is ordered around to the executive office for that hour to take the President to a spot in the suburbs from which he can comfortably walk back to the White House.

Now, when the auto, with its motorcycle outriders, chug-chugs into the driveway, the secret service men hurry into overcoats, shift their arsenals and take up their stand at the entrance to the presidential sanctum sanctorum to await the advent of their charge.

But, at 3 in the afternoon there are usually many sides of many questions to be considered and many grave matters to be determined. Congressmen, senators and cabinet members hurry in to submit various problems, and the President must listen to all, and consider all. Meanwhile, two secret service men, two motorcycle outriders, and automobile and chauffeur wait without. Without what? Why, without a President to go for his constitutional.

The length of time they wait without varies. One evening it was 6:45 o'clock, fifteen minutes before the White House dinner hour, when the President completed the day's labors. Other times the retinue waits only an hour.

An effort was being made on the floor of the House by Representative Butler (Rpn. Penna.) to secure the passage of a bill abolishing the Bureau of Equipment in the navy department. Mann (Representative of Ill.) was on his feet in a moment with an objection, and Butler gave up the attempt.

"I apologize to the House," said Butler, "for attempting to get something done."

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

Arrivals from the north yesterday morning brought the Los Angeles market a splendid assortment of fresh vegetables. Among these were some Dutch cabbage, which sold at 2½¢ a pound. Red cabbage was also shipped in, and brought 3½¢ a pound. There were heavier arrivals of celery and some of the stock sold as low as $2.50 per crate. Artichokes were in such demand that the extra supply was readily cleaned up and the vegetables went back to $1.25 per dozen heads. Cucumbers brought from $1.00 to $2.00 per dozen on fair stock. The market on lettuce was a trifle weak and some lettuce was obtainable at $1.35 per crate. There were no changes in bunch goods.

Receipts of eggs were 239 cases. The market was weak and another decline of 1 cent on all local eggs was registered. This puts the price on very best eggs obtainable at 27 cents whole sale and a few of the downtown stores were advertising fresh candied eggs yesterday at 30 cents a dozen. Storage eggs are not changed in fixed quotations, but underselling brings them down to practically 22 cents on the best.

Eastern storage butter was among the heavy sellers of the morning. Several dealers undertook to unload some of their holdings and street sales showed the price down to 27 cents on this grade. Receipts of local butter were 11,280 pounds. There were no special sales in local butter.

Cheese receipts were 514 pounds. The demand was chiefly for Oregon daisy. Eastern twins and northern fresh were the other varieties which sold well. Offerings were fair. No changes were recorded.

The potato market was active, 4240 sacks being totaled as receipts. Oregon Burbanks were the best sellers. They brought about $1.40 in a jobbing way on best stock. With arrivals continuing as large as they have in the past two weeks, there is little danger of an advance in the market.

Nevada onions were the fancy stock offered by merchants yesterday. They sold at $2.00 per hundred. Other varieties were in fairly good call. Receipts were 298 sacks.

Four cars of beans were received. Among these were small whites, pinks and limas. The market on all three was just steady and some of the dealers anticipated a decline on pinks. Sweet potato receipts were 51 sacks. The market on sweets continued very firm.

The movement of apples yesterday morning was one of the heaviest in weeks. All varieties sold well and prices were firm throughout the list. Tangerines continue to move fast. Other citrus fruits are going out at a nominal rate. The price of fancy wrapped oranges is still $1.50.

LARGE AUDIENCES AT Y.M.C.A. MEETINGS

Successful Addresses Arouse Interest for Forming Local Association

The meetings held yesterday by the State Y.M.C.A. workers proved very interesting, attracting large audiences.

The pulpits of nearly all the churches were filled by Y.M.C.A. men in the morning, and at each church interesting sketches were given of what the Young Men's Christian Association work stands for and is accomplishing.

The afternoon meetings were well attended, the men listening to a splendid address at Spurgeon's Hall by Ben F. Pearson of Los Angeles, while Will A. Brown of Los Angeles, and W. H. Wallace of Long Beach, spoke to the boys at the First Presbyterian church.

The union mass meetings in the evening were largely attended and splendid addresses were given.

As a whole the day's meetings were a success in interesting the Santa Ana people in the Y.M.C.A., and showing the need of such an organization in this city. Probably a deeper interest in the establishment of a Y.M.C.A. in Santa Ana was aroused yesterday than had ever existed before.

FOR AGED PEOPLE

Old Folks Should be Careful in Their Selection of Regulative Medicine

—With advanced age comes inactive bowel movement and sluggish liver. Nature is unable to perform her proper functions and requires assistance. Otherwise, there is constant suffering from constipation and its attendant evils. Old folks should never use physic that is harsh and irritating.

We have a safe, dependable and altogether ideal remedy that is particularly adapted to the requirements of aged people and persons of weak constitution who suffer from constipation or other bowel disorder. We are so certain that it will completely relieve these complaints and give absolute satisfaction in every particular that we offer them with our personal guarantee that they shall cost the user nothing if they fail to substantiate our claims. This remedy is called Rexall Orderlies.

Rexall Orderlies are eaten like candy. They have a soothing, healing, strengthening, tonic and regulative action upon the dry mucous lining and the relaxed muscular coat of the bowel. They produce a natural, successive contraction and relaxation of the muscular fibres of the bowel walls, generating a wavelike motion which forces their contents onward and outward; thus stimulating nature in perfect bowel movement. They tone up and strengthen the nerves and muscles and restore the bowels and associate organs to more vigorous and healthy activity. They may be taken at any time without inconvenience; do not cause any griping, nausea, diarrhoea, excessive looseness, flatulence or other disagreeable effect. Try Rexall Orderlies on our guarantee; 36

How to Keep One's Temper

Keep your temper. It is about the most ruinous thing a young man can do to get mad. If you feel like writing a very angry letter why do so and lay it aside till the next day for your own gratification in reading it over. Then keep it the next day; keep it as long as you please and get all the satisfaction out of it that you can.

It will rapidly grow stale to your own taste. Do anything you please with a getting-mad letter except to mail it. To talk savagely never pays. If a subordinate is accused he dare not answer and therefore it is a coward's assault. If an equal is the object he gives you what you send, and action and reaction are equal and in opposite directions and no progress is made.

If you indulge yourself with your superior you get a moment of satisfaction, and pay for it with weeks of regret while looking for another job.

There are so few places where getting mad is of any service in civil life that the wonder is why the power is left in us by nature. The best soldiers, in fact, fight as they would sell goods, cool, collected, brave, calculating, and they are without malice toward the wounded.

Therefore, war is not murder between civilized peoples. One will have to think a long while to find the circumstance where it really helps a man to give way to excessive anger. There are so many obstacles in life at best that artificial barriers in the shape of feuds are so very foolish that wise men never erect them. When temper rules logic skips out of the window.

There never was a man whose judg-

Worms

"Cascarets are certainly fine. I gave a friend one when the doctor was treating him for cancer of the stomach. The next morning he passed four pieces of a tape worm. He then got a box and in three days he passed a tape worm 45 feet long. It was Mr. Matt Freck of Millersburg, Dauphin Co., Pa. I am quite a worker for Cascarets. I use them myself and find them beneficial for most any disease caused by impure blood." Chas. E. Condon, Lewiston, Pa., (Mifflin Co.)

ment worked better when he was mad. There are no facts that anger takes notice of, but rather the caricatures of facts. Facts are of small account to fools and insane people.

The angry man is part fool and part insane for the time being. One has only to notice with what difficulty he afterwards tries to remember accurately what took place during a fit of uncontrolled anger to confess the truth of the above statement.

There is such a rapid fall in other men's estimation, especially disinterested spectators, that no man who desires success will risk making a scene of anger.

It will hurt him as much as it would to be seen drunk in business hours. Very few hard fighters nowadays ever lose self-control. An unscrupulous hard fighter probably often tries to provoke his competitor to anger for the unquestioned advantage that ensues.

Beyond dispute an outbreak of bad temper is ungentlemanly in the extreme and drives down one's personal standing among gentlemen alarmingly. What distress it must inflict within a home circle only they who suffer it know.

It is the tragedy of private life. It is the curse of all curses and the black soil from whence about all other domestic miseries grow. To master one's temper is, perhaps, the earliest, the chief lesson to be taught a child.

Woman Judge in Denmark

A woman has lately been made a judge in Denmark, and the Danish women are reported to be much excited, as they think it is the first and only case of the kind in the world. To say nothing of Mrs. Esther Waugh McCulloch of Illinois, and Mrs. Mary Cooper of Kansas, do not our Danish sisters read their Bibles? Have they forgotten Deborah, the wife of Lapidath, who judged Israel for forty years, sitting under a palm tree, and led out the forces of the chosen people to battle because the general refused to march without her? Mr. Blackwell was very fond of quoting Deborah to those who claimed that the Bible teaches the subjection of women, and he emphasized the fact that Deborah was a married woman.—Woman's Journal.

Marriage in a Snowdrift

The unique experience of being married in a snowdrift belongs to Thomas Stickley, a young farmer, and Miss Florence Merkley of Newmarket.

Mr. Stickley and his bride-to-be started to drive to a minister's house in Mount Jackson. Snowdrift after snowdrift was encountered. The horses became exhausted, and the vehicle finally came to a stop in a five-foot drift. Leaving Miss Merkley, Stickley made his way on foot to the home of the Rev. Henry Ditzler, who returned and married the couple in the drift on the road.—Baltimore Sun.

The 1910 four-cylinder Reo touring car is in such demand that we can't get them fast enough to fill our orders. Henrickson sold the two he brought down recently before one-half the prospective buyers had a chance to see them. He went to Los Angeles yesterday to get another car, Mr. Shettler being in the east at the present time, he was put to the necessity of falling in line with a number of other Reo agents and at last when he reached the desk of Mr. Shettler's manager, was informed that Mr. Shettler was expected to return soon, and "it is hoped he would bring a whole train load of Reo cars."

We have an order in for cars and are promised they will be supplied out of the next shipment.
